

South Stream: The Evolution of a Pipeline
Programme: Milan, Friday, 27th September 2013

09.00: Registration and Light Breakfast Reception

09.30: Introduction

H. Rick Gill – Managing Director, Natural Gas Europe

Moderated by: Hon. Riccardo Migliori, former President, OSCE PA (including greeting letter from H.E. Hon. Maurizio Lupi, Minister of Infrastructure and Transport, Republic of Italy)

09.40: Greetings and Welcome to “South Stream: The Evolution of a Pipeline”

Hon. Roberto Maroni – President, Regional Government of Lombardia
Hon. Guido Podestà – President, Province of Milan

10.00: Russia and Europe: An Energy Partnership

Anatoly Yanovsky, Deputy Minister, Ministry of Energy, Russian Federation

10.15: The South Stream Project: An Overview of Development. Technologies for the Construction of the Offshore Section

Alexander Syromyatin, Deputy Head of Project Management Department, Gazprom

Oleg Aksyutin, CEO, South Stream Transport BV; Member of the Management Committee, Head of the Gas Transportation, Underground Storage and Utilization Department, Gazprom

10.45: Coffee break and media briefing

11.00: South Stream – A European Perspective

Hon. Gianni Pittella, First Vice President of the European Parliament

11.15: Public and Stakeholder Perceptions of South Stream in Italy

Viki Cooke, Director, World Thinks

11.45: Supplying Gas to Europe while Protecting the Environment - Best Practices from the Nord Stream Pipeline (Q&A)

Dr. Dirk von Ameln, Permitting Director, Nord Stream AG.

12.05: Environmental Management for the South Stream Offshore Pipeline (Q&A)

Chris Halliwell, Senior Manager, ENVIRON

12.25: Thoughts and Conclusions – Views on South Stream from Around Europe

Reka Szemerkenyi, Advisor to Hungarian Prime Minister
Dragutin Matanovic, Advisor to Serbian Prime Minister

12.50: Light Lunch and Media Briefing